The umpire will sign the scorebook and is required to report it to the League President for ruling by the forfeit committee. If no umpire is available, both managers need to sign the scorebook.

Condition 1: If one team does not have enough players to start a game and is unable to borrow player(s), the game will be scored 6-0 win for the opposing team.

Fair balls that bounce, roll or deflect into these areas will entitle the batter and all runners to advance two bases after legally touching all intervening bases. If a player catches a fly ball in the playing area and falls or steps back into the out of bounds areas, the ball is alive and the runners may advance at their own risk after properly tagging up to their respective base.
